Utility bills are mailed out quarterly, normally the first week of each quarter. Bills become payable upon receipt but no later than fifteen days after they are rendered. I understand my responsibilities to pay these debts in a timely manner and that a delay in payment could result in suspension of service. Resumption of service will be accomplished only after payment of any delinquent amount plus a $100 reconnect fee in accordance with Village of Walnut Creek ordinance paragraph 52.04 (A). I further understand if I relocate out of the Village and fail to satisfy this debt, The Village may pursue payment through the NC Debt Setoff Program.
